

Uniform Policy

Long or short sleeve polo or oxford shirts only. Any style sweater. Casual shoes (no sandals) any, with white socks. To maintain modesty, girls must wear shorts under jumpers and skirts.

Sweater/Shirt/Jacket

Pants/Shorts/Jumper/Skirt

School T-shirt & Jeans

White, Dark Green, or Navy

Khaki

Friday only

Curriculum (First, Second, and Third Grades - ages 6-9 years)

Language Arts: Writing (metal insets, print/cursive, creative writing, punctuation, and spelling), Reading (phonograms, sentence analysis, and SRA reading laboratory for comprehension), English Language Study (rhyming, pluralization, contractions, opposites, compound words, alphabetizing, abbreviations, syllables, synonyms, antonyms, homonyms, and grammar).

Math: numeration, addition, multiplication, subtraction, division, fractions, multiples, decimals, metrics, and pre-algebra.

Science: biology - Human Development, rocks and minerals, microscope study, scales, astronomy (constellations, solar system), and experiments.

Geography: physical (land form nomenclature, impressionistic charts, experiments in physics), political (continents, countries of the world and their capitals, research, cultural studies, and Wonders of the World).

Botany: classified nomenclature, plant stories, plant charts, and ecosystems.

Zoology: vertebrate and invertebrate studies, dinosaurs, and Animal Kingdom study.

History: calendars, time lines, American and Texas history, money, Fundamental Needs of Man, clock, holidays, and chemistry experiments - formation of the world.

Art: painting, collage, creativity, sewing, knitting, weaving, crafts, and embroidery.

Practical Life: food preparation, cooking, dish washing, ironing, shoe polishing, and laundry.

Music: songs, percussion instruments, metalophone, recorders.

Extra-Curricular: Cooking, Music & Movement, Composers of Music study, Spanish ("The Rosetta Stone" TM software), French, Outreach Programs, Yoga, Physical Education.

After School: Dance & Gymnastics ("Dance on Tour"), Spanish Language lessons, Arts & Crafts, and Soccer.